

Trent Trahan - PrimeLink CEO

Trent Trahan, CEO of PrimeLink, has directed PrimeLink into to the state of the art telecommunications provider it is today. Mr. Trahan has also been the CEO of Champlain Telephone Company since 1995, the parent company of PrimeLink, which has been providing continuous service to Champlain, Mooers, Mooers Forks, Rouses Point and Altona, New York since 1903.

Under Trahan's direction, PrimeLink established the PrimeLink Great Northern ShootOut, an Annual Thanksgiving weekend two-day round-robin tournament. The 2009 tournament features four of the top Division III college hockey programs: Norwich University, Middlebury College, Plattsburgh State University and the University of Wisconsin-Stout. PrimeLink's exclusive sponsorship and volunteer commitment over the years has matured the PrimeLink Great Northern ShootOut into the college hockey tradition it is today.

Trahan is a native of Chazy, New York and alum of Plattsburgh State University.

Greg MacConnell - PrimeLink President

As President and General Manager, Greg MacConnell is directly responsible for the day-to-day operation of PrimeLink as well as the strategic planning and tactical business plans to ensure the Company's continued success and future growth. Greg has been with PrimeLink since the critical startup phase and has been instrumental in building a strong sales team and securing the foundations of new business relationships. He has been an integral part of developing PrimeLink into the successful company it is today.

MacConnell is a native of Bergen, New York and a graduate of Plattsburgh State University.